

Aitchison College Model United Nations Conference VIII

AITCHISON COLLEGE MODEL UNITED NATIONS SOCIETY

Organizing Committee

Guidelines for Private Delegations

- 1- It is necessary for all private delegations to submit security fees of 5000PKR along with their delegate and delegation fees.
- 2- Private delegations need to have a head delegate who will provide all of his/her parents details. The said parent will not be contacted unless a member of the private delegation breaks the rules and regulations of the conference.
- 3- Private Delegations will have to sign a special waiver of liability in which:
 - a- They will have to promise to abide by all rules and regulations of the school and Model United Nations Conference
 - b- If they fail to do so or commit an act which harms the conference in anyway whatsoever, the school will take their security deposit away
 - c- If they abide by all rules and regulations the security deposit will be given back to them a day after the conference
- 4- Private delegates are not allowed, if they wish to attend the conference they must form a private delegation.
